Wellbeing Communications Hub

The Wellbeing Communications Hub is an online portal which enables our UK clients to easily and quickly produce customised, self-branded EAP, Best Doctors, Eldercare Support Service and other employee engagement materials with zero or very limited cost. Clients can choose to insert their own logo and messaging into pre-approved Generali wellbeing member leaflets / posters etc, or use existing Generali branded pieces.

The Hub allows easy editing & production of a Wellbeing Pack, including information leaflets, posters, member cards and a self-branded presentation folder. It requires no marketing or design expertise, so it's perfect for a busy Compensation & Benefits or HR manager with limited time / resource.

The Wellbeing Communications hub also allows clients to order professionally printed supplies of their customised materials or the pre-printed Generali branded materials, in small quantities or in bulk, directly from our trusted print partner. Alternatively, clients can download electronic versions (.PDF) for distribution to employees via email / intranet etc. For more information, visit our website to download the user guide, which also includes the print-materials price list.
